III. RESULTS

Mukhyamantri Yuva Sambal Yojana, the state repackaged unemployment allowance scheme which is pending approval at the chief minister's office, mandates four-hour duty for five days a week in government offices, agencies or at anganwadis. "Once the scheme is launched, youths will have to work for at least four hours a day to be eligible for the allowance. If they do not have any professional degree or diploma, they will have to undergo skill training for three months at RSLDC (Rajasthan Skill and Livelihoods and Development Corporation)," employment secretary Neeraj K Pawan said. Under the revamped scheme, the unemployment allowance will be increased from Rs 3,500 to Rs 4,500 for girls, specially abled persons and transgenders, and from Rs 3,000 to Rs 4,000 for boys. Also, 2 lakh beneficiaries will be eligible for the scheme every year, an increase from 1.60 lakh. Unemployment allowance to youth was part of the Congress election manifesto for 2018 assembly polls.[5] The Mukhyamantri Yuva Sambal Yojana was launched on February 1, 2019. As part of the employment department's campaign to physically verify 2% beneficiaries of the state government's unemployment allowance scheme every month, it has been revealed that only two persons had received it despite getting a job.

It also revealed that the allowance of 83 people was approved by the department despite they getting jobs in private and public sectors. However, money was not transferred to their accounts, revealed the physical verification of beneficiaries. “Some beneficiaries got their names removed from the scheme after getting a job, while others did not. After verification of provident fund (PF) data and the department’s portal, it was found out that a couple of them got benefits under the scheme despite getting a job,” said an official. There are around 3 lakh pending applications of unemployment allowance with the department

Rajasthan government has provided benefits to 4.02 lakh unemployed youths under the Mukhyamantri Yuva Sambal Yojna from February 2019 to January 2022, the state assembly was told on Tuesday, February 15. In a written reply to the question of BJP MLA Anita Bhadel during the Question Hour in the House, Minister of State for Skill Development, Employment and Entrepreneurship Ashok Chandna said that as of February 1, 2022, a total of 16.54 lakh unemployed were registered in the state.[4]

According to data released by the Centre for Monitoring Indian Economy (CMIE) in September 2021, the state had registered an unemployment rate of 17.9% which was second only to Haryana's 20.3%. Out of these, a total of 13.64 lakh are registered graduate and postgraduate unemployed candidates, the Minister said. He said that out of the registered unemployed, 6.11 lakh unemployed youth have applied for unemployment allowance under the Mukhyamantri Yuva Sambal Yojna.

Among these unemployed youth, a total of 4.02 lakh candidates have received benefits up until January 31, 2022, according to a report by PTI. The Minister informed the House that consent was obtained from 7,623 candidates for skill training and 31,525 for internship. He said that Rs 1346.34 crore was spent in the scheme from March 2019 to January 31, 2022, and Rs 503.81 crore was spent in the financial year 2019-20.

Chandna said that under the scheme, a maximum of 2 lakh registered graduates and eligible candidates can receive an unemployment allowance in a year.
